

Wautoma Public Library's Bulletin Board Policy

When space allows, bulletin board materials may be submitted for posting by non-profit organizations for civic, educational, recreational, for cultural events, activities, or meetings. Exhibits of a commercial nature and those purporting political or controversial issues, including information that is indecent, harmful to minors, or provocative will not be allowed.

The Library Director will have final approve of all postings and may prohibit postings which do not meet the above standards. Library staff will be responsible for displaying and removing postings promptly. Posted items will be removed and disposed of by library staff unless other arrangements have been made.
